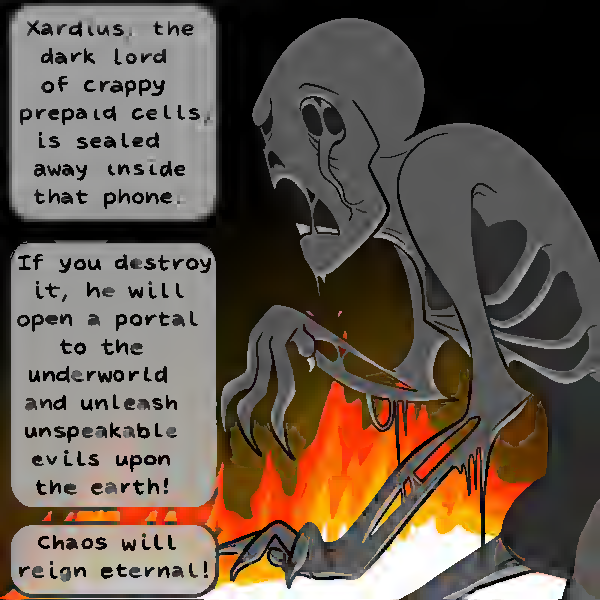
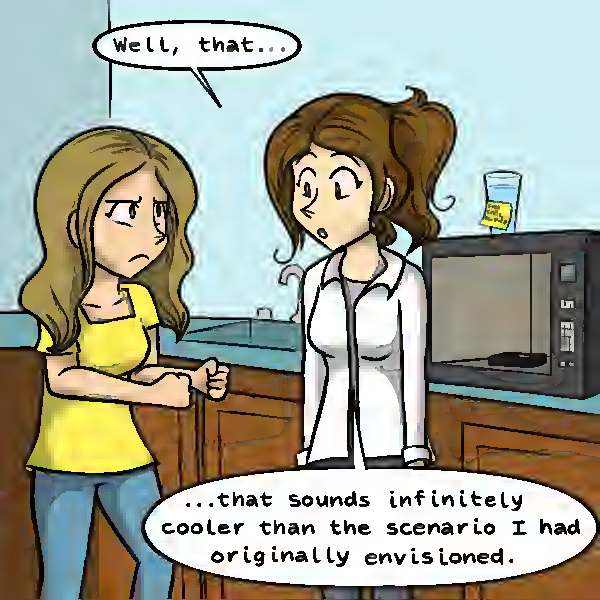
Whoa! What are you doing?!
Pfuh! I know what you're going to say.
"Don't microwave a phone, Sarah!"
"It's dangerous and irresponsible, Sarah!"

But you know what I say?
I say you have no sense of adventure.
FIRE EXTIN-GUISHER
Besides, I have safety measures securely in place, so don't even tell me I'm being irresponsible about this.

You don't understand! It's not fires that I'm worried about!
Huh? Then why do you care?
There are much bigger things at stake here!



Xardius, the dark lord of crappy prepaid cells, is sealed away inside that phone.
If you destroy it, he will open a portal to the underworld and unleash unspeakable evils upon the earth!
Chaos will reign eternal!



Well, that...
...that sounds infinitely cooler than the scenario I had originally envisioned.

Haha, whoops!
BOOP!
No!! What have you done?!
